

Yellow and Red Play Structure (PS135)

Models

These scale models are just a few of our “New Designs” that are fully 3-Dimensional structures which were built in our shop using brazed steel, and painted using the same method as our products. Our models are for display purposes to show our clients a greater depth as to what the finished product will look like, and can be viewed in-person at our shop located in Brantford, ON.

